Maysoon Khair will be at our churches in Nov. 16 & 17, representing School of Joy for learning-disabled children and over 100 Christian families who make their livelihood through the selling of their hand-carved olive wood religious articles. Due to the situation in the Holy Land and the interruption of the tourist trade that is happening with Christian families in Bethlehem, they must seek alternative ways to earn a living. After all Masses, there will be a display of these beautiful hand-carved items, such as nativity scenes, crucifixes, rosaries, the Last Supper and many other religious statues. Please stop by and look over the carvings and help support this self-help project to keep the Children and the Christians living in the Holy Land.

Saint of the Week

St. Charles Borromeo

Feast Day: Nov. 4
1538-1584

Though Charles suffered all his life from a speech impediment, his intelligence and zeal made him an outstanding figure of the Catholic Reformation. In 1560, he was named a cardinal and administrator of the Archdiocese of Milan by his uncle, Pope Pius IV, but was kept in Rome to assist with the reconvened Council of Trent. He helped draft the council's catechism and liturgical books, and in 1563 was ordained a priest and bishop. Finally, in 1566, he was allowed to go to Milan, where he worked tirelessly to reform priestly training and lay catechesis. He also exhausted his own funds to provide relief during periods of famine and plague. He is the patron of seminarians and catechists.
